Year 3 News...

Our class has been using a school-based computer learning program called Edmodo. We have been making weekly quizzes, polls and posting topics for students to answer. All students so far have been highly engaged and are enjoying being able to chat with their friends in a safe environment. Any posts to one another have to be approved by the teacher. If you have any questions in regard to Edmodo, please do not hesitate to contact us. Our rewards day is planned for Thursday the 18th of September. We have decided to have a fun day based on our COGS unit (Effects of Growth and Change) so we ask students to bring something to dress up in that represents either past or future.

Examples of NILS loans
- White goods such as fridges and washing machines
- Beds, cook and bedding
- Household Furniture
- Health items/Medical Equipment
- Other approved goods and Services
- Educational equipment to aid study
- Car expenses to aid transport accessibility

NILS loans are not available for ongoing expenses, emergency relief or items where other assistance is available. For example:
- Second hand goods
- Bond and rent
- Rent arrears
- Living expenses such as food, utilities, medical expenses
- Gas, electricity or telephone bills
- Credit advances
- Debt repayment or consolidation

Eligibility
To be eligible for a NILS loan, a potential borrower must generally:
- Hold a current Health Care Pension Concession Card
- Receive a Centrelink payment or have a low income
- Need essential goods or services
- Currently live at the same residential address for past 3 months in the NILS Program postcode areas

Repayments
Repayments are tailored to suit individual circumstances. The term of the loan is usually 12 to 18 months. Generally repayments are made through Centrepay.

How Much Can You Borrow
The maximum loan is dependant upon your ability to repay - however the usual maximum is up to $1,200 and 3 months after your repayments are complete, you may apply again.

Community Money
The funds to provide these loans come from the community and prompt and complete repayments enables the NILS providers to re-lend the money to other members of the community. If you are experiencing difficulty repaying your loan, please contact us as soon as possible to discuss options available to you.
