Year 3 News...

Homework has been given out for this week. The Home Reading Journal and the homework sheets are both due in on Friday. In maths we have been finding change in money problems, and rounding amounts to the nearest 5 cents. We are still revising times tables facts. In Persuasive writing, we are going to write about the topic, “It is cruel to keep birds in cages!” In Grammar we are going to look at noun groups, and in Reading, we have been investigating narratives about animals. Did you know that the baby of an Echidna is called a “Puggle?”

Portfolios- there are still a few portfolios that are outstanding.

Book Week- The Book Week Parade is on this Thursday. Children should be finalising their book character costume over the next few days.

End of Term Whole School Production
Children should be organising their costumes for this. Please contact Mrs Vines or myself, if you are having any problems.

We will continue with the Premier’s Sporting Challenge this week.

Year 5 News...

Spelling sheet 25 was given out yesterday. It was pleasing to see a number of children moving up a level in their spelling. Well done! We continue to look at energy consumption at home/school and ways of cutting back our energy use. In language we are completing a creative writing task which we hope to read to a Stage 2 class. Tomorrow we visit Woolgoolga High school for some exciting science activities.

Mr Taylor

Years 3&4

For our end of term production item the children have been asked to organise a t-shirt and pants/shorts. Colours are yellow or brown or black. If you are unable to source these items, some students have indicated that they may have some spares. Good places to find these items are op-shops or even Best & Less. Any concerns please send a note to your child’s class teacher.

School fees as usual are set at the beginning of the year by the P&C; this year’s fees included school accident insurance for all students and are $20 per single student or $35 per family. If you have not already paid your fees we would appreciate it if this could be done as soon as possible also.

Canteen News...

Thank you to the families who returned the survey regarding the canteen. Over the next few weeks we are implementing changes towards making the options on our menu healthier. Students will be able to taste test and give feedback on items that may be included in the new menu. Last week’s taste testing was a huge hit. Thankyou Bec!

Some items on the current menu are now unavailable - sausage rolls, jelly, fried rice and shakey shakes. Mac cheese is now $2 for a limited time. As it is Fruit and Veggie Month, students will be able to taste a variety of seasonal fruit and vegetables with classes receiving fruit and vegie platters to munch on at fruit break.
